IACCP | Spark Grants

The International Association for Cross Cultural Psychology (www.iaccp.org) seeks to provide small grants to support cross-cultural researchers at all levels.

Spark grants are aimed at supporting activities that enhance the visibility of IACCP and cross-cultural psychology in general, spark awareness and interest in cross-cultural psychology (among academics, practitioners, the community), build local capacity and access to resources for conducting cross-cultural research, and facilitate networking among cross-cultural psychologists both across or within regions.

You can find further information on the grant scheme here [ >>insert link to webpage on iacp.org page with complete overview of grant<<]

Via this form, you can submit your application for one of the four Spark Grant types

- SG1 Connection (e.g., small group meetings)
- SG2 Awareness (e.g., activities that spread awareness)
- SG3 Research Capacity and Dissemination
- SG4 Education (e.g., workshop organization)

Please be prepared to enter information about yourself as the main applicant, your co-applicants, as well as the proposal itself in this form.

You can contact the Spark Grants Committee in case there are questions.
